v.

Fifth District Court of Appeal, Respondent

Petition for writ of mandate DENIED.

S045944      In re David Anthony Breaux
                                 on Habeas Corpus

The petition for writ of habeas corpus is denied on the merits. Separately and independently, claims VII.C (jury consideration of extraneous evidence, to the extent it alleges the jury improperly considered (1) that petitioner might eventually be released from prison and commit further crimes and (2) a newspaper article not admitted into evidence), VII.E (incompetence to stand trial) and VII.F (inadequate assistance of counsel) are barred as untimely. (See Harris v. Reed (1989) 489 U.S. 255, 264, fn. 10.) They are substantially delayed because they are based on information that was long known or should have been known to petitioner or his counsel. No good cause has been offered to justify or explain the delay, and the claims come within none of the four exceptions to the bar of untimeliness. (In re Clark (1993) 5 Cal.4th 750, 767-783 [delay rules], 797-798 [exceptions to the untimeliness bar].)

Respondent's request for judicial notice is denied.

Mosk, J., is of the opinion an order to show cause should issue.
